Abstracts

Tesco Stores maintains a stable position in retailing in the Czech Republic. It will strive to increase its profitability and efficiency, so the company will review the potential of individual outlets to meet its targets. Based on the future financial performance of Tesco Plc, its global owner, there is still the possibility of selling the Tesco operations in the country to another retail player. However, the 2016 business results seem to be very promising in terms of profit, according to compan...
