Abstracts

Tetra Pak will invest €36 million in a technology upgrade project at its packaging materials plant in Izmir over the forecast period. With new machines in operation by January 2015, it will be able to provide customers with a wide range of packaging options for differentiation and improved functionality. The Izmir plant will more than double its capacity to 10 billion packs, and broaden its capability to produce a wide range of packaging from the Tetra Pak portfolio. The 15 sizes and forms of...
