Abstracts

Rayong and Pattaya-Chonburi stand out as Thailand's most economically dynamic cities, while Maha Sarakham demonstrates the greatest promise for future economic expansion. Nonetheless, cities in Thailand will face ongoing challenges. In the short term, these encompass a global economic slowdown, inflationary pressures and stricter financial conditions. In the long term, the strain on urban infrastructure due to large and growing populations will pose a persistent concern.

Euromonitor International's City Review reports analyse key trends and developments in 126 world's major cities. They provide localised city information in terms of economy, consumer lifestyles, housing and transport and city environment and offer valuable insights for strategic planning.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
