Abstracts

In 2023, tissue and hygiene in the United Arab Emirates faced inflationary challenges due to the soaring cost of essential raw materials, such as pulp and energy. Players responded by adjusting prices or reducing pack sizes, prompting consumers to gravitate towards value-driven options, notably smaller packs. The demand for personal care products such as hand sanitisers and home care disinfectants stabilised post-peak pandemic levels, but demand for wipes remained strong, while staple retail tis...
