Abstracts

The fourth quarter forecast update for consumer tissue and disposable hygiene products still places the industry in the red, with the majority of the markets facing downgrades. However, the extent of the downgrades remains small compared to incremental sales to be generated globally, signalling the overall industry's relative resilience to cautionary macroeconomic trends. The report reveals key takeaways from the fourth quarter forecast update as well as latest trends in premiumisation.

Euromonitor International's Tissue and Hygiene Quarterly Briefing Q4 2019 global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the tissue and hygiene market, highlights buzz topics, emerging regions, countries and categories as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the opportunity zones within tissue and hygiene, analyses leading companies and brands, assesses the importance of private label and offers strategic analysis of major factors influencing the market - be they new product developments, economic/lifestyle/environmental influences, distribution or pricing issues. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and criteria for success.

Product coverage: Away-from-Home Tissue and Hygiene, Retail Tissue and Hygiene, Rx/Reimbursement adult incontinence, Total Tissue and Hygiene.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
