Abstracts

In 2014, the market saw rising interest in the smaller size cigarettes, transiting from king size to queen size, slim, super slim or nano slim size of cigarettes, this naturally affected the size of the pack, however the 20-unit folding carton remained a classic pack type. Moreover, legal uncertainty regarding the requirements for the packaging, rising discussions on the plain packaging as well as changing graphical requirements for tobacco products, were the key reasons for producers to limit...
