Abstracts

In 2013 domestic tourism flows decreased by 2%, reaching 61 million trips. The main reasons for this performance were the negative economic environment and the lower available incomes of Italians. In addition, the crisis changed the travel habits of Italians, with many more people reducing the number of holidays taken in the year, or the number of days per holiday, as well as choosing cheaper accommodation and trying to limit transportation costs. In particular, increases in petrol prices...
