Abstracts

Domestic tourism in Slovakia continued its slowdown in the number of trips made in 2013. The number of domestic trips declined by 2% during 2013 to four million trips. Mainly behind this decline is a slowdown in leisure tourism. Another reason is the replacement of domestic trips by outbound trips, when consumers make the most of the very nice weather during the summer months and travel to coastal regions. Good winter conditions have inspired many to take short skiing trips to Austria instead...
