Abstracts

Domestic tourism continues to see very positive development with large mobilisations of people throughout the country. This is being supported by several factors. On one hand, the access to US dollars to travel abroad is very limited and very expensive, which is why the middle sectors of the population are turning to domestic trips. On the other hand, the national government has strongly promoted domestic tourism through the PreViaje plan, which returns 50% of the expenses incurred up to a certa...
