Abstracts

In 2022, following the easing of local pandemic-related travel restrictions, a strong public desire to explore again drove a full return to domestic travel in Australia. The affordability of domestic travel also played a key role in encouraging consumers to choose destinations within the country. Additionally, a slower return to normalcy in international flights and outbound travel in 2022 also contributed to the growth in domestic travel. Many Asia Pacific countries did not fully reopen their b...
