Abstracts

Domestic tourism derived some benefit in the wake of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic, as borders closed and consumers looked within the country for travel for economic, health and logistical reasons. As a result, the number of domestic trips is expected to exceed the 2019 pre-pandemic level in 2023. Belgian consumers discovered or rediscovered the pleasures of travelling within their own country as foreign destinations were closed off or became more complicated to visit. There are many advan...
