Abstracts

In 2023, international events, coupled with initiatives by the government, have been allowing inbound tourism to witness healthy growth, which is ultimately expected to drive current value sales beyond the pre-pandemic level, seen in 2019. Inbound tourism has experienced a remarkable resurgence in 2023, propelled by significant global gatherings such as the G20 summit, through which India, under its presidency, strategically positioned itself as a global tourism hub. Simultaneously, the hosting...
