Abstracts

2023 has seen a significant recovery in terms of inbound arrivals to Ireland with the number of trips set to reach 89% of pre-pandemic levels. With COVID-19 restrictions lifted the country has begun welcoming back visitors from key source markets including mainland Europe and North America, with this driving the recovery of travel and tourism in Ireland. A strong US dollar and a stronger than expected performance from the US economy has supported an increase in the number of Americans taking ove...
