Abstracts

Tourism flows in Italy have performed very well in 2023 with figures expected to come close to pre-pandemic levels in terms of number of trips. The Easter weekend contributed to the recovery of tourism in Italy, with domestic and foreign tourists flocking to the coast, to cities known for their art and culture, to the mountains, as well as to picturesque towns and villages. In addition the low temperatures made it possible to enjoy an excellent winter season starting from January, while the summ...
