Abstracts

The volume of inbound arrivals increased for the second consecutive year in 2023, following the lifting of all remaining COVID-19 related entry restrictions in October 2022. The return of tourists from other countries in Asia-Pacific, notably China, was a key contributor to this recovery, although volumes remained below the peak recorded in 2019. China is a key source market for the Thai travel industry, having accounted for more than a quarter of total inbound arrivals in Thailand before the pa...
