Abstracts

Ukraine has been one of the slowest countries in Europe to roll-out its COVID-19 vaccinations, with only 10% of the country's population being fully vaccinated against the virus as of the end of August 2021. This, together with fears around the Delta variant spreading during the autumn and winter has limited the recovery in travel flows in 2021, both for inbound arrivals and outbound departures. Another ongoing challenge is the conflict between Russia and Ukraine which has created concerns among...
