Abstracts

Tourism flows inbound to Denmark decreased by 1% in terms of number of trips in 2013. The number of international arrivals into Denmark decreased for the second year in a row. The category performance continues to be weakened by the decline in the number of tourists from Germany, who mainly visit the seaside areas of the country. Mistrust in the European economic climate, fragile local weather conditions and the high prices in Denmark are keeping German tourists away. The relatively high price...
