Abstracts

The finding is unanimous: Whilst the drop in the attendance of French tourists affected the receipts of the local market, incoming tourists were still loyal to France and saved the situation. The still healthy growth by 2% of international arrivals in 2013 enabled France to keep its rank as a world-leading destination in terms of trips. Although France has not been the top destination in Europe in terms of sales for many years, this leadership is still a feat according to some experts, as the...
