Abstracts

Tourism flows outbound continued to rise in 2013 up 7%, an increase from the 6% growth experienced in 2012. This growth occurred despite a depreciation of the Australian dollar, which had the effect of making outbound travel more expensive. Those destinations that have driven this continued growth are those that continue to be affordable to Australian holidaymakers, whether because of the expansion of low cost carrier airlines (Singapore, Malaysia), because poor economic conditions at the...
