Abstracts

The number of outbound departures posted a slower growth of 7% in 2013 compared to the 9% growth it attained in 2012. The natural calamities towards the end of 2013 is among the factors that influenced the slower growth. Residents of the affected areas had to focus on rebuilding and rehabilitating their lives rather than taking vacations outside the country. It was also a known fact that some individuals and families opted for a simpler celebration during the Christmas holidays to show their...
