Abstracts

Total visitor numbers grew by 2% in 2013, which was by far the strongest performance since 2007 in fact. This did not translate into especially strong calculated sales figures, however, as many tourists were enticed by discounted deals, offered on sites such as Groupon and Living Social, and there remained a number of very popular free attractions in Ireland, which performed strongly throughout the year. Nevertheless, the overall revenue from tourist attractions grew, which was also for the...
