Abstracts

Tourist attractions registered a 17% current value growth in 2013 which is slower compared to its 20% value growth in 2012. The decline in growth can be traced to the natural calamities which affected travel within the country by Filipinos and conflicts with neighbouring countries which adversely affected visits by other nationalities. Nevertheless, the growth was still robust driven mostly by the revenues generated from casinos. Large-scale casinos such as Resorts World Manila and Solaire...
