Abstracts

Impacted by a strained economic situation and inflation, while the toys and games industry continued growing in 2022, it recorded a slower pace compared to the accelerated growth of 2021. The consistent decline in birth rates continued to significantly impact certain categories, especially in traditional toys and games. The industry stagnated in 2022, with areas such as plush toys, games and puzzles, and construction being the top performers of the period, while scientific/educational toys were...
