Abstracts

Retail sales of toys and games saw a slowdown in growth in constant value terms in 2022. Demand was hampered by a continued decline in the national birth rate, which was reportedly the lowest in 71 years. The economic crisis, exacerbated by the pandemic and the war in Ukraine, caused many Thais to think twice about having children. With inflation climbing steadily, rising prices impacted household budgets. This had a particular impact on poorer, rural households, for whom a high proportion of in...
