Abstracts

Toys and games maintained current value growth in 2022, although this was minimal, and much lower than seen in the two previous years. Traditional toys and games saw a negligible current value increase in 2022, reflecting a strong slowdown in growth following two years of significant expansion. The shift in consumer spending priorities away from products towards services, such as travel, contributed to the almost flat performance. Despite this shift, a few categories within traditional toys and...
