Abstracts

After a logical slowdown during the initial weeks of the first lockdown of the winter 2020, traditional grocery retailers enjoyed an unexpected peak of sales in April, May and June 2020. Given that the majority of these independent retail outlets are classified as food and drinks specialists, they were authorised to remain open and continued operating at full capacity throughout the quarantine lockdown period, with the same situation remaining in place during the following two lockdowns at the e...

Euromonitor International's Traditional Grocery Retailers in France report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry.
