Abstracts

Traditional grocery retailers in 2021 have seen a slight positive growth, in contrast to the broadly negative trends generated over the review period as these independent players were pushed out of the marketplace by modern grocery retailers. This lift was a result of people working and studying from home; consumers were more likely to shop at local neighbourhood outlets than bother traveling to larger stores.

Euromonitor International's Traditional Grocery Retailers in Latvia report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
