Abstracts

Traditional grocery retailers in Poland is a highly fragmented competitive landscape featuring a large umbrella of independent sellers under “others”. Since modern grocery retailers entered Poland and rapidly developed in the grocery space, traditional operators have increasingly lost favour. The limited offer of products in addition to the greater time needed to visit different food specialists rather than one-stop shops and competitive prices offered by supermarkets or discounters, are perceiv...

Euromonitor International's Traditional Grocery Retailers in Poland report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
