Abstracts

The retail current value sales of traditional grocery retailers plunged by a fifth during 2021. During the second half of 2021, a significant number of these outlets were forced to close for a fortnight for cleaning after staff contracted COVID-19. Due to their relatively small size, traditional grocery retailers found it more difficult to enforce social distancing.

Euromonitor International's Traditional Grocery Retailers in Thailand report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
