Abstracts

Traditional grocery retailers continued to lose value share to modern grocery retailers, with constant value sales actually falling in 2021. Consumers appreciate the wide range of goods in modern grocery retailers and with society opening up in 2021, consumers were not keeping close to home and shopping in local neighbourhood stores.

Euromonitor International's Traditional Grocery Retailers in Uruguay report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
