Abstracts

In 2021, COVID-19 created challenges for traditional grocery retailers, which restrained the development of the channel. Although the government made efforts to improve the hygiene and environment of traditional grocery retailers to enhance consumers' experience, most traditional grocery retailers were mandated to close in July until September due to the rise in the number of COVID-19 cases. Therefore, value sales in the traditional grocery retailers channel fell in 2021.

Euromonitor International's Traditional Grocery Retailers in Vietnam report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
