Abstracts

Emerging Asia Pacific saw the highest growth of licensed toys with a 12% increase in 2017. The growth comes as major global brands continue to reach new parts of the region due to the rapid proliferation of smartphones. At the same time, however, local licenses continue to see higher investment and toy demand, creating a greater atmosphere of competition that is only likely to grow through to 2022.

Euromonitor International's Traditional Toys and Games Licensing in Emerging Asia Pacific global briefing offers a comprehensive guide to the Toys and Games market at an international level. It looks at both global and regional level performances as well as providing category and channel analysis. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the industry, new product developments as well as future trends and prospects.

Product coverage: Traditional Toys and Games, Video Games.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
