Abstracts

Automotive was the industry's largest category in 2018, and saw growth accelerate, lifted by rising domestic demand and exports. Despite a slowdown in household consumption and interest rate hikes, the Indonesian new car market sustained growth in 2018, and lifted the domestic car industry. Moreover, Indonesian car manufacturers witnessed expanding exports. During 2018 Indonesia exported 346,000 vehicles, up by nearly 50% from 2017.
