Abstracts

Australian transport and storage needs expanded during 2018, on the back of a growing domestic economy and rising international trade. The country's economic activity was fuelled by a rise in the average wage, reduced unemployment and increasing prices of the main locally-produced commodities, like iron ore and coal. The latter development also greatly boosted Australia's foreign trade, with the value of the country's exports rising by 11% in 2018, mainly due to record-breaking mining exports, e...
