Abstracts

The transport and storage industry in South Korea expanded negligibly in 2017, limited by the sluggish economic situation, which, in turn, negatively affected the goods and services market, restricted domestic and international trade, and thus reduced demand for transportation services. However, South Korea's exports in 2017 expanded to the highest level in at least six decades, boosted by shipments of semiconductors, machinery, and petrochemicals, thus contributing to the transport and storage...
