Abstracts

In 2019, the US transport and storage industry continued to grow at a healthy pace, albeit more slowly than in 2018, mainly supported by the boom in e-commerce. The industry's slowdown in growth can be partially attributed to stalling exports, a fall in capital investment and lower business confidence, largely related to the ongoing US-China trade tensions, which remain among the major risks to the US economy. According to the International Air Transport Association (IATA), trade volumes between...
