Abstracts

Transportation value sales in Norway increased by 3% in current value terms in 2013 which was one percentage point higher than that seen in 2012. The main reason for the stronger increase in 2013 is attributed to the performance of low cost carriers which continued to see an increased share of transportation value sales as a result of more companies offering more attractively priced tickets than main carriers.

Euromonitor International's Transportation in Norway report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest market size data 2009-2013, allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth.
