Abstracts

Transportation grew by 10% in value in 2013. Much of this growth was driven by air travel, which likewise registered 10% growth in value sales in 2013. Flying remains the most preferred method of travelling to other countries or to other islands within the country. This is because air travel is not only time efficient but it also provides cost savings as competition amongst budget airlines is driving the prices down. Furthermore, the country's airport is more developed compared to its seaports,...
