Abstracts

Overall value sales in travel accommodation saw a minor increase in current terms in 2013 to stand at €13.9 billion, up only €30 million on 2012. Apart from the recessionary year of 2009, this was the worst performance of the review period, with 2010-2012 seeing growth rates of around 3%. In the absence of “growth engines”, the category’s high level of maturity and saturation put pressure on average unit prices. The most important type of travel accommodation by far, hotels, thereby had to deal...
