Abstracts

Hotels performed well even, which can be linked to a growing number of inbound tourists and the intensive demand for wellness and health tourism – as this category relies on hotels more than any other type of accommodation. The number of bed nights spent in hotels grew for a fourth consecutive year, this time by a noticeable 6% in 2013. However, hotels could not escape the down trading effect after the bankruptcy of the national air carrier Malév, and had to face a growing more price-sensitive...
