Abstracts

Hotels in the Netherlands began to display the first signs of genuine recovery during 2013. The first six months of the year saw hotels still struggling amidst negative consumer sentiment. This negative sentiment was particularly strong among domestic tourists, and this compromised growth in hotels during the first six months of 2013. However, during the second half of the year, some positive signs emerged as the Netherlands' hotels reported a major increase in the number of bookings, higher...
