Abstracts

Saudi Arabia's hotels are seeing strong growth, backed by two important factors. Firstly, the country is home to the two holy cities of Makkah and Medina, which attract a large number of pilgrims every year. Continued growth in the number of pilgrims each year is leading to massive expansion plans by the current hotels, as well as the arrival of new hotels, both chained and unchained. Secondly, the thriving oil-based economy is seeing a boom in business activities, mostly in the capital Riyadh...
