Abstracts

Domestic tourism continued to impact the revenue of hotels but due to record numbers in the number of international tourists, hotels started recovering in 2013 with marginal growth in the number of hotel rooms, 2% growth in bed nights and an increasing occupancy rate as more international tourists have chosen to book in hotels. Leisure performed marginally better than business in 2013. According to Exceltur, the hotels situated on the coast with 52 locations increased their revenue by 4% per...
