Abstracts

It is estimated that travel in 2023 will not reach the volume and value levels it would have without the COVID-19 disruption. Moreover, the inbound tourism flow is expected to remain lower in 2023, compared with the 2019 pre-Coronavirus (COVID-19) level. This performance is mainly impacted by the slow recovery of business travel, as companies economise by continuing with virtual meetings and conferences and try to reduce their environmental impact. The slow recovery of intercontinental tourism i...
