Abstracts

COVID-19 is hitting Bolivia's emerging travel industry hard. The government acted quickly in response to the pandemic, closing borders, grounding international flights, restricting internal movement to all but essential workers and imposing varying degrees of quarantine across the country. This hit every sector of the travel industry, and Bolivia's travel industry, which has seen solid growth over the review period is set to see wholesale value reversal in 2020. Travel restrictions and quarantin...
