Abstracts

COVID-19 led to weaker results in 2020-2021 while lifting restrictions in 2022 led to a boom in travel results. With pent-up demand continuing to result in consumers booking trips, 2023 is expected to set records. Following two years of travel restrictions, Denmark is becoming an increasingly attractive destination for inbound tourists. Despite the higher-than-usual general inflation, Danes are willing to travel domestically and outbound, with the country's positive employment aiding travel. Due...
