Abstracts

After the severe difficulties and challenges faced in the wake of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak in 2020, optimism in the industry and the joy of experiencing holidays again from the consumers' side have driven travel in Germany in 2022-2023. While cautious about planning in advance, German tourists were ready to travel again as soon as they felt safe and obstacles, especially when travelling by air, were removed. The so-called "revenge travel effect", along with the savings made by German...
