Abstracts

The Hungarian travel market has performed positively on the whole in 2023. Inbound, outbound and domestic trip numbers have increased strongly and come closer to their pre-pandemic levels, with diminishing concerns about COVID-19 and the ending of most associated restrictions continuing to support the release of pent-up demand. Indeed, rates of growth in inbound arrivals and domestic trips look set to surpass those recorded in 2022. In both cases, growth has been buoyed by the country's hosting...
