Abstracts

Tourism is incredibly important to the Maltese economy, with it being one of the main drivers of GDP. Following on from the success of Valletta European Capital of Culture 2018, Malta continued to invest in new cultural events and the restoration and redevelopment of areas across the islands in 2019. Furthermore, Malta continued to increase the capacity of the islands' only airport, Luqa, with new routes continuously being added – including Cairo and Warsaw. Plans were also in place to expand th...
