Abstracts

Travel in Spain is seeing a return to pre-pandemic levels in Spain in 2023, with good weather over the Easter and May bank holidays boosting domestic tourism. Summer is also proving to be incredibly positive for inbound travel, as Spain has become a trending destination. This is the case for both the country's traditional key inbound territories, such as the UK, France, and Germany, along with attracting a higher number of travellers from Belgium, the Netherlands, and the USA. However, elongated...
